INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Aims and Scope: The “Qom UMSJ” is a scientific research-based journal published monthly which deals with medical and allied health sciences, the objective of which is to boost and disseminate the findings of the researches done on medical sciences and the corresponding fields, and its target groups are those active in the field of the medicine and allied health sciences. This journal is published quarterly by “Qom University of Medical Sciences”, Qom, Iran. The full texts are published in Persian and each article has Persian and English abstract. Members of editorial board are specialists in different areas of medicine. The articles of the journal are available at: http://journal.muq.ac.ir.

Articles: This Journal accepts Original Articles, Review Articles and Case Reports in the fields of medicine and allied health sciences.

Submission: Always submit three copies of the article and two sets of photographs, illustrations, diagrams etc to the above-mentioned address. Manuscript must be accompanied by a covering letter to Editor-in-Chief, including title and author(s) name(s) provided that it has not been published or submitted elsewhere. In case the manuscript had been submitted earlier to some other Journal and been rejected, the authors must provide full information for proper analysis. Manuscript should be typed in double space on one side of the A4-size paper with clear margins on both sides. Tables as well as illustrations should be typed and drawn on a separate paper. Do not submit tables as photographs.

In case of electronic submission of the manuscript, the authors must declare that it is being exclusively contributed to Qom University of Medical Sciences Journal. The text should be submitted in Microsoft Word format as an attachment. The figures should be sent in a format of JPEG or GIF which will produce high quality images in the online edition of the journal. Submission is also acceptable via Journal URL: http://journal.muq.ac.ir

1. The manuscript should include: Title page; the Abstract; Introduction; Methods; Results; Conclusion; Acknowledgement and References.

2. Title page: The complete title of the manuscript, the name of all the authors with their highest qualifications, the department or institution to which they are attached, address for correspondence with telephone numbers, e-mail, and Fax number.

3. Abstract: All original articles must accompany a structured abstract up to 250 words. It should be structured as Background and Objectives, Methods, Results and Conclusion followed by 3 to 5 Keywords. Keywords will assist indexers in cross indexing the article as they are published with abstract. Use terms from the Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) list of index medicus (http://www.nlm.nih.gov/mesh/MBrowser.html). Authors need to be careful that the abstract reflects the content of the article accurately.

4. Introduction: This should summarize the purpose and the rationale for the study. It should neither review the subject extensively nor should it have data or conclusions of the study.

Methods: This should include exact method or observation or experiment. If an apparatus is used, its manufacturer’s name and address should be given in parenthesis. If the method is established, give reference but if the method is new, give enough information so that another author is able to perform it. If a drug is used, its generic name, dose and route of administration must be given. For patients, age, sex with mean age ± standard deviation must be given. Statistical method must be mentioned and specify any general computer program used. The Info system used should be clearly mentioned.
1. Results: It must be presented in the form of text, tables and illustrations. The contents of the tables should not be all repeated in the text. Instead, a reference to the table number may be given. Long articles may need sub-headings within some sections (especially the Results and Discussion parts) to clarify their contents.

2. Conclusion: This should emphasize the present findings and the variations or similarities with other work done in the field by other workers. The detailed data should not be repeated in the discussion again. Emphasize the new and important aspects of the study and the conclusions that follow from them. It must be mentioned whether the hypothesis mentioned in the article is true, false or no conclusions can be derived.

3. Acknowledgement: All contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be covered in the acknowledgement section. It should include persons who provided technical help, writing assistance and departmental head that only provided general support. Financial and material support should also be acknowledged.

4. Tables: In limited numbers should be submitted with the captions placed above. Do not submit tables as photograph. Place explanatory matters in footnotes, not in the heading.

5. Figures: Should be in limited numbers, with high quality art work and mounted on separate pages. The captions should be placed below. The same data should not be presented in tables, figures and text, simultaneously.

6. References: All manuscripts should be accompanied by relevant references. The author should ensure reference to locally published studies by doing proper literature search. It may not be possible for the editor and reviewers to check the accuracy of all reference citations. To minimize such errors author should verify references against the original documents. The Reference should provide the following information as stated in the presented models as follows: (Vancouver Style)
